

About the Global Peacebuilding Center at USIP

We are the public education program of the United States Institute of Peace. We serve the American people with programs and resources that make peacebuilding accessible and engaging.

We extend USIP's reach across the U.S. by working with:

Teachers

through workshops & activities to help bring peacebuilding into the classroom.

Communities & Organizations
on the Peace Day Challenge each year.

Students

through programs & initiatives to build the peacebuilding knowledge & skills of the next generation

We offer a range of educational resources:

Onsite educational programs, including briefings by USIP experts

Curriculum and other online materials, including the Peacebuilding Toolkit for Educators

Resources that tell the story of America's commitment to peace

Special initiatives and contests that engage students and the broader public in peacebuilding action
